

GREENSTEDS SCHOOL • PRIVATE BAG • NAKURU • KENYA

1st September 2017

Dear Parents,

I trust this finds you well and that you have enjoyed a good holiday season with your children.

As you may well be aware, the Supreme Court of Kenya has just ruled to nullify the recent Presidential Election, with new polls to take place within 60 days. Today is a normal working day in Kenya and all our advice is that all is calm and business is carrying on as usual.

Therefore, I am pleased to confirm that School will re-open as planned, with boarders returning on Sunday 3rd September and the first day of the new school term being Monday, 4th September 2017. All travel arrangements will remain as planned.

As far as the new polls are concerned, we will continue to monitor the situation and update you as regards any implications on school dates, as soon as possible.

We very much look forward to welcoming all of our students back to school and I look forward to seeing you again soon.

With very best wishes,

Jon Murray-Walker
